ANOTHER MARKET.

There has been considerable fear here amongst the planters and others that if we should lose the reciprocity treaty with the States that we should have no market for our sugar and consequently the islands would be ruined. British America has been offered by some as a probable substitute, but it has been urged and with great show of reason that there is not a sufficient market on the West Coast there for our output.

Now, however, we offer another substitute. Japan, teeming with her millions, having a population about two-thirds that of the States, in terms of excellent friendship with Hawaii, uses sugar throughout her dominions. All classes use it and it is entirely imported from Manila, and China. The price paid there is from 7 to 11 cents a pound and the quality is not so good as that raised here.

Let us then endeavour in case of accidents to have a treaty concluded with Japan excluding other sugars by duties, and admitting Hawaiian sugars free of duty.

POLICE COURT.

Schr Pohoiki brought 30 cords of firewood.

Schr Ehukai brought 394 bags sugar, and 30 hides.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Judd Hill is getting to be quite fashionable as a promenade. Isn't that so?

SERVICE to-morrow morning at the Bethel will be conducted by the Rev. S. E. Bishop.

THE attention of Sportsmen is directed to the notice of Max Kohn's, in another column.

THE Rev. A. O. Forbes will preach at Fort Street Church to-morrow both morning and evening.

THE Gospel Temperance meeting this evening in the Bethel vestry will be led by Mr. Walter Brash.

FROM the valley we hear of pleasant and plentiful rains. The inhabitants accordingly are rejoicing.

WITH this issue is presented a supplement, containing Inter-colonial News, the first instalment of a very interesting compendium of what is known about

New Guinea. The Japanese as constructors. An Aztec ceremony. Some causes of Boiler Corrosion. and The travelling cure.

BUSINESS men are complaining that business is very slack now. Hardly anything is being done.

MESSRS. Palmer & Thacher will be pleased to hear from parties having their Soda and Ginger Ale Bottles, and boxes.

YESTERDAY morning Her Majesty the Queen Dowager Emma, and suite, went out on the reef with tents, etc., and had a very pleasant picnic.

A few days ago a mule stepped on a nail sticking out of a board. It gradually sickened and yesterday died of lock-jaw in Allen & Robinson's lumber-yard.

THE Rev. Geo. Wallace having completed a year of residence as Minister of St. Andrews' Pro-Cathedral will preach an anniversary sermon to-morrow morning.

THIS afternoon at half-past three o'clock the Oceanic, and Honolulu Clubs will play a baseball match at the Makiki reserve. A good game is being prepared for.

TO-DAY Mr. Michiels will hold his grand opening of new goods, etc., of a class never seen here before, at the Grand Magasin du Louvre at the corner of Alakea and King streets. Our lady readers will do well to call. It will well repay them.

MESSRS Kennedy & Co, grocers, on Hotel St. notify in another column that they have become the Agents for the Artesian Ice Works and that their store will be a depot for the same. They will keep a large supply on hand and supply it at all times, and in any quantity to those desiring it. This will be an excellent opportunity for families.

A GENERAL vacation seems to be going on. The Courts and the schools are shut up, and most people who can get away are out of town. Few vessels are coming and fewer are in port. Little or no sugar is coming in from the plantations. In view of all this it is suggested that the proprietors of the stores and warehouses should give their clerks a vacation also. How does that seem to be taken?

SIGNATURES are being obtained in large numbers to a petition which is being circulated amongst Hawaiians praying the Board of Health to retain the services of Dr. Fitch in Honolulu or at least to leave him spend half his time here. Yesterday over 1250 signatures had been obtained by two-thirds of a committee of 13 appointed by a meeting held at Kaumakapili church. It is intended to wait on Mr. Gibson on Monday with the petition. The Hons. Lilikalanani and Lahilahi are on the committee.

It is currently reported that a certain English Capitalist who wishes to start a tram-car line here has declared his intention to proceed to lay the rails, etc., on the streets under the authority of a written concession or agreement obtained by him from the late Minister of the Interior, Mr. J. E. Bush. The Government have the matter under consideration we believe. The plans propose to lay lines along all the principal streets in the town. The late Legislature refused to grant any concession for this kind of thing, so why should it be done now? And what authority has a Minister of the Interior to grant any such concession?

THE fire on the slopes of Punchbowl on Thursday afternoon was caused by the burning of joss-sticks at some Chinese graves in a gorge at the back of Punchbowl. Four wagon loads of Chinamen went up there and performed their usual ceremonies over the graves of their countrymen and before departing, put out, as they thought, all traces of fire. However this was not so and the fire rapidly spread over the slopes and finally up to the top and over into the crater. Here it did not do any damage beyond burning all the grass and two or three old rotten gun-platforms. The trees are said not to be injured. At one time according to an observer the fire in the crater looked like the seething lava in a volcano. By the exertions of the police under the superintendence of Mr. Dayton the fire was finally extinguished.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I think the law as it stands about stopping a debtor's passport is a fraud on the creditor. Now, suppose I owe a debt here and cannot get away from Honolulu what is to hinder me from going to Maui, or Hawaii, and getting away from there. There should be a law to make every person pay their honest dues without any trouble to the man that gives credit. I would like to know when a man has constant work why he should not be made to pay his bills when he is rogue enough not to do so.

Yours truly
J. H.

China is clearly determined to oppose the establishment of France in Tonquin. The French Ambassador at Peking reports that a force of 2000 Chinese troops has been marched southward. Other and less authentic intelligence states that the Chinese Government is so bent upon resisting a French occupation that it has collected an army not of two thousand, but of fifty or sixty thousand upon frontier, the troops well armed with new rifles, and supported with a strong fleet of gunboats and torpedoed. All this may be a trifle exaggerated, but the French Government will do well not to enter too lightly upon an enterprise which will bring them into collision with the whole armed strength of China. What that strength is may be still misunderstood in France. The Chinese fleet is not to be despised. It contains a couple of ironclads, a monitor, two frigates, twelve corvettes, thirty gunboats, and a large number of smaller vessels. Chinamen are not bad sailors, and this fleet will be fairly well manned. As for the army, it is 600,000 strong on paper, and if this number would not stand the closest investigation, at least half are good troops ready to do well in a campaign. Fifty thousand of them are armed with repeating rifles, and China is commonly supposed to have made large purchases in other arms of precision. The organisation of her army may not be above suspicion; but a power which can command nearly unlimited resources, which has a population of four hundred millions, untold wealth, and a fanatical population, must be opposed by more than 5000 Frenchmen to secure victory to France. The result of the coming struggle will be watched with deep interest at home.—Home News.
